Archivist
National Archives
Washington, D.C.

8/10/86

Dear Archivist,

As you can see from the enclosed copy of my letter to you of 6/23, it has now been seven weeks yet I've not had any response.

Are you really that understaffed?

Or inefficient?

Or uncaring?

You've had the use of my money for years at no cost because the accounts do not bear interest.

The least one should be able to expect in return is reasonable promptness in making response to a not unreasonable request.

May I now please hear from you with regard to this matter?

Sincerely,